NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Chincoteague.

Mrs. Maggie Finney and Mrs. Sallie Finney, of Onley, spent the week at the Atlantic Hotel.

Five candidates will be baptized and received into the Union Baptist church next Sunday.

Capt. Wm. Harrison has been awarded the contract to place buoys at Chincoteague and Metompkin inlets.

Mr. C. E. Babbitt, Jr., of this place, and Mr. Jos. W. Taylor, of Wisharts, will open their oyster-shucking houses next week.

The W. C. T. U. was in session here Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, and the visiting sisters were well pleased with the welcome given them.

Mr. H. Cropper, wife and child, of Philadelphia, Mr. C. C. Frost, of Norfolk, Mrs. M. Waters of Stockton, and Capt. Thos. Millner, of Locustville, are visiting friends here.

Mr. D. J. Wheaton is having a stone walk placed around his beautiful home, which makes it much more attractive in appearance. It is the prettiest residence on the Peninsula.

A delightful beach party was given on Steamer Lillie by Mrs. O. D. Doughty on the afternoon of September 1st in honor of her friend and guest, Miss Ethel R. Crismond, of Portsmouth. Delicious refreshments were served on the return trip. In a beauty contest for a basket of fruit during the afternoon Capt. Jack McCracken, of North East, Md., was the winner. Mrs. Doughty was tendered a hearty vote of thanks for the delightful outing.

With September the oyster season opens with us and after the 15th the "catchers" will commence to gather in seed oysters. The planted oysters have made large growth during the summer and the prospect for the planters here is flattering. We will have more barrel stock this season than we have had for many years; the shuckers will be short owing to the scarcity of seed oysters and the high price asked for them.

Arrivals at Atlantic Hotel this week: W. C. Hall, J. B. Webster, H. C. Wolford, B. E. Gillis, Baltimore; S. L. Black, E. R. Dood, E. Y. Jesper and wife, W. P. Hance, Philadelphia; W. J. Taylor and wife, Edgar L. Tuck and wife, Miss Mabel B. Welch, Jacob Beson, New York; E. R. Clayton, Norfolk; W. S. Ray, Albert Nutter, H. G. Say, Harrisburg; F. L. Smith, Salisbury; Snow Parsons and wife, Miss Houston and sister, Miss S. Dryden, Stockton; Capt. N. B. Rich, Accomac.

At a meeting of the building committee and board of directors of Parksley National Bank held in their banking house on Tuesday the contract was given to Messrs. Pilchard & Furness of Pocomoke City for the building of their new bank building here. It will be the handsomest and most commodious bank on the shore. It is to be completed by Dec. 1st, 1905.

The annual fair of the Methodist Protestant Church will be held here on Wednesday and Thursday, September 13th and 14th, afternoon and evening of each day. Supper and refreshments will be served in abundance. A fine merry-go-round will be here for the children and perhaps some of the older ones also will be allowed to ride if they wish. Come everybody.

Hopeton.

The game of "pitching" is a favorite pastime in this community.

Miss Ella Coloma, of Accomac C. H., is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coloma.

Mr. Henry Wessells, seriously ill for the last three months, is reported as a little better.

Norman, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mason, very sick of late with typhoid fever, is very much improved.

Mr. Roy Byrd, the sewing machine agent at this place is doing a flourishing business. He sells the best is the reason—the Singer.

Quite a number of our people attended a feast of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold at Winterville a few days ago and report a delightful time.

Among the late visitors to friends at this place and vicinity are: Miss Essie Barnes of Temperanceville, Mr. and Mrs. Selby Fisher and daughter of Hollywood, Mr. Corbin of Atlantic.

I will be at Atlantic for the practice of my profession on Thursday and Friday, September 14th and 15th, 1905.

Dr. W. A. Taylor, Dentist.

Horntown.

Want to Serve on Fishing Board.

A special from Norfolk to the News-Leader, under date of September 7th, says: The question of filling the salary position of president and secretary of the Virginia State Board of Fisheries comes up with the inauguration of Governor Swanson.

Robert W. Shultice, of Norfolk, who was a candidate for the presidency of the board when Dr. John W. Bowdoin was appointed nearly four years ago, is again an aspirant and has large backing.

Dr. Bowdoin seeks reappointment, but he having been a pronounced Montague supporter, it is hardly thought that he can win out.

Other aspirants for the position are S. Wilkins Matthews, former member of the legislature from Accomac county; McDonald Lee, of Lancaster county, and Dr. Frank Fletcher, of Accomac. S. F. Miller, of Matthews, seeks reappointment as secretary of the board.

School Notices.

Obituary.

Just two months ago how sad were our hearts when the angels so softly entered our home and bore away our dear father, Samuel E. Wright, who said, "I am only awaiting the coming of Christ for I am ready and willing to go."

You are not dead to us, papa dear, but as a star unseen,
We hold that you are ever near,
Oh! death intrudes between.

Wife, when daughter is weeping,
And says where has papa gone,
Tell her I am sweetly sleeping,
At the Saviour's holy throne.

Daughter, when mama is crying,
And says where has papa gone,
Tell her there is peace in Heaven,
Where love and friendship never dies.

Oh! how sweet the anticipation,
That beneath a cloudless sky,
We hope to meet you, dear papa,
In the sweet by and by.

In dreamless sleep our loved one rests.
Daughter Minnie.
